FOREWORD

As we look out into the World, we see many new hopes and new dreams. We realize, that soon, we are to leave Silvercreek High School. It is now the time for our yearbook.

We hope that you will enjoy it as much as we enjoyed giving it to you. May many happy memories come to those who leaf through the pages of this book. May our work not be in vain.

We give to you our book - - - - - - - - - - The '54 Vikonian

DEDICATION

To Mr. Smith, for his guidance and untiring efforts for the past three years. With respect and sincerity, we dedicate this Vikonian. He has shown not only wisdom and strength as an advisor, but also understanding and sympathy as a friend.

TWELVE YEAR CLUB

CLASS HISTORY

The Seniors of 1954 met at the estate of the well-known Professor of Harvard University, Mr. Clayton S. Smith. The highlight of the evening was dancing on the Smith's patio with the famous dance orchestra of Ray Anthony. While the majority of the guests were enjoying themselves dancing, other guests were talking and reminicing over old times, and looking through old record books of the class. We were astonished to find that seventeen of us had started in the first grade together in the fall of 1941 with Miss Shaw as our teacher. They are as follows: Wayne Bell, Donna Bowers, Betty Bradshaw, Maxine Slusher, Gary Rogers, Harold Gillem, Carole Irons, Lina Bryan, Georgia Shinkle, Robert Talbot, Larry Garman, Ford Pickering, Clara Faye Leach, Kenton Leach, Marvin Harper, Lynn Pickering, and Mildred Sanders. Mildred Sanders left us before the year was up to attend Ross. The year rolled by quickly with the learning of the alphabet and the counting of numbers.

In the second grade we welcomed Carolyn Staley from Springfield, Ohio and Charles Pitzer from Bloomingburg; but lost Kenton Leach to go to Ross. Under the helping hand of Miss Betty Irwin, we were taught to read and write.

We were merrily on our way to the third grade when we were joined with Mary Stanforth, from Cedarville, Paul Shultz from London, Ohio, Carole Kelley from Dayton, and William Nelson who failed. Mildred Sanders returned from Ross. Charles Pitzer had left us and before the year was over Mildred Sanders had left us again. That year we were under the wise teachings of Miss Mildred Toland who taught us a little multiplication.

In the fourth grade we welcomed Shirley Hunter from Xenia; Eugene Knox from Jackson, Ohio; James Sutton from Atlanta and Mildred Sanders from Union. We lost Paul Schultz to go to Sharonville. Under the instructions of Mrs. Banta we went through the year very swiftly with a few defaults of broken arms and scratched knees.

In the fifth we were under the supervision of Mrs. Thuma. When the roll was called we were all present. No additions or subtractions with a balance of 25. Here we learned about our ancestors in the country and also did a little art work and moved happily onward to the sixth grade.

With the guidance of Miss McVey we found a few new friends awaiting us who were: Kenton Leach from Columbus, Marvin Harper from Ross, Kay Talbott from Michigan, and Paul Schultz from Runyon. Paul then left us again to go to Sharonville. Toward the end of that year, we were all wishing we were first graders again; but suddenly we found ourselves in the wide open spaces of the seventh grade room with the hand of Mr. Jean Creamer leading us.

As we looked about us, we saw six new members of our class to be. They were: Elsie Jones from Dayton, William Green from Highland County, Harriet Grice from Brookville, Ruth Carroll from Arizona, Paul Schultz from Sharonville, and Carl Baker, whose class had left him behind. The days flew by as we met our new advisor and found our trail to the upward path of education. Another glance and we were in the eighth grade, well on the road to High School. Here we were again under the supervision of Mr. Creamer. As we checked attendance, we were pleased to find we had an enrollment of 41. We survived the year with a few demerits for chewing gum and running in the halls. No one received enough demerits to get expelled from school, so we were all promoted into the Freshman Class in good shape.

Again, Mr. Creamer was our advisor. We had an addition into our class of three. They were: Cynthia from Jeffersonville, Shirley King from Portsmouth, and Grady Rasnic from Tennessee. We were in High School at last. What a thrill!! Now we could vote for High School Activities, have assemblies, and choose our own subjects. The year quickly rolled by as we adjusted ourselves to each new thing and by the time everything was under control, we were Sophomores.

That year we were introduced to Mr. Smith who was to be our supervisor. Along with a new teacher, we had two new members who were Donald McCall from Greenfield, Ohio, and Helen Wells from Portsmouth. As we glance at some pictures taken the Sophomore year, we find that the Harvest Queen was chosen from our room, who was Helen Wells.

The sponsor for our Junior Year was Mr. Smith again, and we found that we had gained a few new members who were Mary Lou Reed from Washington C. H., Norma Baughn from Jeffersonville, Hetty Ann Patrick from Bowersville, and Arnold Scott from Ashland, Kentucky.

This year held some new adventures in store for us. First was our Class Play, "Meet Corliss Archer", then election of the Harvest Queen to whom our Cynthia Garringer was elected. Time flew and the Junior and Senior Banquet was upon us. Everything went over great and all the kids enjoyed the formal prom which followed. Carole Irons was elected to go to Girls' State and Kenton Leach to Boys' State.

Our vacation went fast and soon we found ourselves back in the old institution of education for our last and final year. Mr. Smith was still with us. This year we lost Don McCall, Carole Kelley, and Helen Wells and gained Jeri Evans from Sinking Springs and Joyce Conley from Portsmouth. Our projects this year were the annual, paper drives, selling aprons, magazines, and we produced our Senior Class Play on March 19, 1954, the title of which was "You Can't Kiss Caroline". Everyone said it was a job well done. And most of all, working toward our trip to Washington, D. C. and New York.

CLASS PROPHECY

Now in the year 1955 we find ourselves in a weird place. A dim light burns and as we look around we see that the room is furnished with a table, three chairs, and a large crystal ball. We walk into the room to look into the future. The fortune teller now enters. We watch and as the years fly by we see old friends we once knew.

As the picture slowly becomes clear we can see one, no two people. It looks like Bill Nelson and Bill Green who have met while driving trucks between Ohio and Maine. They seem to be talking about Carl Baker whom they saw at a truck stop. Carl is now a Fuller Brush man. Carl had mentioned seeing Kenny Leach, his wife Vivieen, and four children while selling brushes. Kenny is now in the veterinarian business in Jamestown.

A new picture now appears. It seems to be Mary Lou Reed and Betty Bradshaw Mash. Mary Lou is planning her marriage to Vernon Hurles. Betty is here on a visit. She lives in North Carolina with her husband who runs an illegal still. We learned this information from Jim Sutton, an illegal still inspector.

As another picture comes in view, we see Norma Baughn, who is a private secretary for Ford Pickering. Ford and his wife Juleah now own a 1,500 acre farm. The main product of this farm is Sweet Violets. Harold Gillem is Ford's hired hand. Just pulling out of Ford's drive is Marvin Harper and his two helpers Grady Rasnic and Bob Talbott. They have just installed the 25th bathroom in Ford's small farmhouse. As Marvin pulls out on the road, he side swipes a car. In this car is Paul Schultz and Pete Bell, who are now two disillusioned coaches who have resorted to basketball officiating. This accident was caused because Schultz and Bell were racing with Charles Pitzer, who was commuting between his chain of poolrooms. Along comes Arnold Scott, who is a drivers training teacher. Arnold's favorite expression is "Lay me a strip in high gear".

Now the picture is clouding up, wait, it is only Gene Knox, who knits argyle socks and designs bee-bop glasses. On the side Gene writes Knock-Knock jokes for Larry Garman's television program, "The Pure Oil Playhouse". Featured on Larry's playhouse is that famous pianist, Maestro Don Lynn Pickering and his assistant, Shirley Hunter, who turns the pages of his music. Behind the scenes, we find Gary Rogers, the most famous television producer of all times, conducting the Pure Oil Playhouse.

The picture now fades to a well known beauty salon in Xenia, owned and operated by Lina Bryan. Her first customer seems to be the stylish Clara Faye Leach who is now the private secretary of the Leach Brothers Inc. with headquarters in Washington D. C. They seem to be discussing old schoolmates in which the conversation points to Mary Stanforth Pitstick who takes in washings to support her twelve kids. It seems Mary's next door neighbor is Joyce Conley who recently made a trip to Hollywood for a screen test but was turned down. She told about seeing a classmate of hers, Harriet Grice, who is a well known movie star. Also she spoke of seeing Elsie Jones, who is now a Powers Model.

Another customer arrives and it is Carolyn Staley who has come for another crew cut. Hair styles have gotten shorter through the years. Carolyn now lives in Florida but has returned to her home town due to the death of an old high school teacher. She spoke of her last visit to a hospital where Carole Irons, an old classmate is now a registered nurse. A well known woman doctor in this hospital is Kay Talbott who has just performed a major operation of taking the tonsils from Cynthia Garringer. Cynthia is now modeling Bikini Bathing suits on Miami Beach.

Well, look who is coming in the door, Jeri Evans, who is now the leader of her own hillbilly band with her husband playing first guitar. Jeri herself, plays the banjo. As Lina looks through her appointment book she finds that Donna Bowers has the next appointment. We hear that Donna now runs a day nursery. Among the children there, we find Georgia Shinkle Riley's two little boys. Georgia is still slinging hash at the Candy Kitchen. Also among these children is Shirley King Fawley's baseball team. Shirley's husband is now a big league baseball pitcher. The phone rings and Mildred Sanders Pickering is calling in to cancel an appointment due to the fact that Don made her get a job at the Royal Electric in order to provide for their six kids.

It is now closing time and as Lina closes the door behind her she meets Ruth Carroll and Hetty Patrick. Ruth is now gym teacher at Beavercreek. Hetty is now chief librarian at the Greene County Library. As Lina steps off the curb she is almost knocked off by a "speed demon," which happens to be Maxine Slusher Adkins, who now drives hot-rods in the "Powder Puff Races".

The picture slowly fades away and as Carolyn and Norma rise to leave, they see Mr. Smith who has just returned from his "PSYCHIATRIST". Mr. Smith is on the road to slow recovery after a mental upset caused by the Senior Class of 1954.
